think lick... think STOCKLICK

Sales & Nutrition Representative

Stocklick Trading is a leading manufacturer and distributor of dry lick and molasses blended products throughout Northern Australia and is seeking applications for a Sales & Nutrition Representative. This is a full time salaried position based in Charters Towers with company vehicle and resources provided.

If you have a rural background with experience in animal health and nutrition and are familiar with the grazing industry in central Queensland then this is the job for you. You will have a strong sales background and will be keen to continue to grow the business in an established territory which has lots of growth potential.

You will be self motivated and possess professional communication and computer skills. You will be able to demonstrate a good rapport with primary producers. This position requires regular travel to remote areas and periods of time away from home.
