

Chief Executive Officer

Client

Our client, the Northern Territory Farmers Association (NT Farmers), represents and advocates for the plant-based industries of the NT. As a peak industry body, NT Farmers promotes agricultural development in the Northern Territory and directly assists growers with a comprehensive range of support services. The Association is now searching for a Chief Executive Officer to guide the organisation and continue its rapid growth.

Role

The Chief Executive Officer is a hands-on role, you will lead a strong team, whilst managing relationships with the Association Board, members, industry stakeholders and growers. The overarching goal is to achieve a stronger future for plant-based industries in the Northern Territory. The Chief Executive Officer is also responsible for all of Association governance requirements, including Board, regulatory, legal, financial, human resource management and contractual obligations.

Requirements

You will have experience in managing diverse business units across multiple operating systems, including governance, financial, project management and human resource management. You will also be passionate about creating a team culture of strengthening systems and processes to deliver outcomes, and more importantly, informing the Board of core business activity and achievements through meaningful reporting. You will be results-oriented, and support NT Farmers to strengthen its strategic and operating environment, to provide increased return on investment to members, and ensure projects that are delivered are connected to strategic goals and provide subsequent opportunities and benefits for plant-based industries across the Northern Territory. A minimum of three years' experience running a similar sized organisation, including managing, and maintaining, relationships with the Board effectively through ethical governance, business practice and financial management expertise, is required.

Location

The role is in Darwin (office is based in Coolalinga), Northern Territory.

Remuneration

A very attractive salary is on offer for this role, including salary and superannuation.
